

WCC 2008: ICT Professionalism and Competences
8, 9 and 10 September 2008

Program Committee

Roberto Bellini	AICA, the Italian Computer Society Chairman
Renny Bakke Amundsen	DND, the Norwegian Computer Society EUCIP Norway
Moira De Roche	IFIP – IP3, International Professional Practice Partnership CSSA, Computer Society of South Africa
Marco Ferretti	CINI, Consortium of Italian Universities for IT University of Pavia, Italy
Juan Garbajosa	Universidad Politecnica de Madrid, Spain
Vivek Jacob	BTH, Banyan Tree Holding, India
Roger Johnson	IFIP – IP3, International Professional Practice Partnership BCS, the British Computer Society
Hiroshi Mukaiyama	IPA, Information-Technology Promotion Agency, Japan
Giulio Occhini	AICA, the Italian Computer Society
Franco Patini	Confindustria, Confederation of Italian Industry
Nello Scarabottolo	CRUI, Italian Universities Chancellors Conference
Niko Schlamberger	CEPIS, Council of European Professional Informatics Societies
Stephen Seidman	IEEE Computer Society
Paolo Schgör	AICA, the Italian Computer Society
Pietro Paolo Trimarchi	Ragioneria Generale dello Stato, Italian Ministry of Finance
Peter Weiss	AIFB University of Karlsruhe, GI, Gesellschaft für Informatik, Germany

WCC 2008 – ICT Professionalism and Competences

Preliminary Program

Monday 8 September 2008

ICT Professional Role (keynote speeches)

09:00 ICT Professional Role in Europe

Niko Schlumberger, supported by Declan Brady, Julian Seymour, Peter Weiss

09:45 The Role of Professional Societies in the Emergence of Software Engineering Professionalism in the United States and Canada

Stephen B. Seidman

10:30 Coffee Break

ICT Professionalism in Various Contexts

11:00 IT Engineers Examination in Japan

Hiroshi Mukaiyama

11:20 IT Professional Role Today and Tomorrow

Colin Thompson

11:40 European Universities and the ICT Industry

Vasile Baltac

12:00 Professionalism and Competences at IBM

Walter Pistarini, Raffaele Stifani

12:20 Specialization: a Challenge for Small and Micro-Enterprises in ICT Supply

Johann Steszgal

12:40 Guidelines for ICT Professional Services Provision to Public Administration in Italy

Marco Gentili TBC

13:00 How to Move Forward and Implement e-Skills on a Long Term Basis

Franco Patini

13:30 LUNCH

ICT's Role in the Emerging Economies

14:30 The Strategic Value of Professional Competences for India

Vivek Jacob

14:50 ICT Industry-oriented Education in China

Xiaofei Xu

15:10 IT and Professionalism in Developing Countries – Focus on Africa

Maira De Roche

15:30 International Co-operation: Fostering the Reconstruction of Iraq

The Italian Government's Support

Giorgio Grassi TBC

Benefits from ICT and from an Advanced Management of Professional Skills

Botan Osman TBC

16:00 Coffee Break

Professionalism and Certification: a Complex Relation

16:30 The Emerging ISO International Standard for Certification of Software Engineering Professionals

Juan Garbajosa

17:00 A Model for Rating and Certifying Competences in the EUCIP Framework

Andrea Violetti, Susanna Daddi, Stefano Hajek

18:00 End of Day

Tuesday 9 September 2008

Profiles and Competences Standards: the Approach of CEPIS and its Member Societies in Europe

09:00 The Need for a Standard Qualification of ICT Professional Competences

Paolo Schgör

09:30 The EUCIP Model and Related Services

Frank Mockler

10:00 National Sharing of a Model

Vincenzo Gervasio TBC

10:30 Coffee Break

EUCIP Exploitation in Practice

11:00 National Standards for IT Education in Estonia

Jaan Oruaas TBC

11:15 EUCIP in Ireland

Mary Cleary TBC

11:30 EUCIP for Competence and Career Planning in Norway

Renny Bakke Amundsen

11.45 The Greek Experience on IT Administrator

Manos Leontios TBC

12.00 Setting up the EUCIP network in Poland

Grzegorz Szyjewski

12.15 EUCIP in Spain

Joan Navarro TBC

12.30 Case Study: EUCIP in Italy

EUCIP in the University System

Marco Ferretti

ICT Skills Requirements in Public Administration

Pietro Paolo Trimarchi

Enhancing Professionalism in ICT Micro-Enterprises: PIN-SME Italy

Gianfranco Granara TBC

13:30 LUNCH

IFIP Professional Practice Task Force – Session 1

14:30 Introduction

Charles Hughes

15:00 IP3 Overview

Charles Hughes

15:30 The Industry Perspective: Microsoft

Graham Watson

16:00 Coffee Break

IFIP Professional Practice Task Force – Session 2

16:30 Accreditation

Bob Hart

17:00 Member Societies Role and Engagement

Roger G. Johnson

17:30 Panel / Q&A Session with the Attendees

(all speakers + Roger G. Johnson)

18:30 End of Day

Wednesday 10 September 2008

Global Companies and the Need for Standards

09:00 Intel

Martin Curley TBC

09:20 Airbus

Wilfried Berlin

09:40 Finmeccanica

Giorgio Mosca

10:00 Generali

Sergio Marangoni TBC

10:30 Coffee Break

Diverse ICT Professional Competences Approaches

11:00 CEN/ISSS ICT Skills Workshop

Noel Geoffrey McMullen, John O'Sullivan

11:30 The Issue of World Wide Recognition: Panel

(all speakers + Aviana Bulgarelli, TBC)

13:00 Drafting of a Formal WCC 2008 Position Paper for IFIP Member Societies, International Standardization Bodies, EU Institutions, National Governments

13:30 End of Conference / LUNCH